

GOEIE-MÔRE

“A country imagined” musician Johnny Clegg once called South Africa. The contrasting landscapes, both natural and cultural, are the visions which fire the imagination of South Africans artists and captivate the hearts of those who visit the countries of Africa’s Southern Cross.

MAKE IT YOUR ADVENTURE, TOO

SAWUBONA

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT JOINING THIS SPECIALIZATION, CONTACT

prof. Jerzy Koch at jkoch@wa.amu.edu.pl

prof. Paweł Zajas at zajas@wa.amu.edu.pl

GOOD-MORNING

SOUTH AFRICAN STUDIES (What a world!)

AT THE FACULTY OF ENGLISH
ADAM MICKIEWICZ UNIVERSITY
wa.amu.edu.pl/dutchafrikaans/afrikaans

MATSHERONI

Did you know that South Africa has eleven official languages?

Did you know that South Africa has two Nobel Prize winners for Literature?

Did you know that the fourth oldest national park in the world is in South Africa?

Did you know that Afrikaans is the youngest language in the world?

Did you know that South Africa has the largest lion population in the world? [But not in the streets!]

Did you know that you can enrol for South African Studies in the Faculty of English at the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań?

AVUXENI

Wow! I never knew that...

WANT TO KNOW EVEN MORE?

Enroll for the most exciting thing in your life [well, almost...]

HOW DO I DO THAT?

You can find all the admission requirements for the South African Studies Specialization at the web site of the Faculty of English

<http://wa.amu.edu.pl/wa>

or directly at

http://wa.amu.edu.pl/wa/dla_kandydatow

DUMELA

The magnificent landscapes, the cultural diversity of the South[ern] African society, its fascinating and sad histories, dynamic politics and its vibrant literatures inform the content of the curriculum.

Students learn Afrikaans as a Foreign Language and when the opportunity arises are also introduced to one of the nine Bantu languages. (Have you spotted some of them on this leaflet?)

One of the true highlights of the studies is the annual tour of the third-year students. Find out more here: beyondborderstour.blogspot.com