

CONTENTS

WOJCIECH LIPONSKI

- Western Teachers and East-European Students: An Essay on the History and Present Plight of British and American Studies in Poland* 5

KRZYSZTOF VORBRICH

- The Humanistic Aspects of the Copernican Controversy in England between 1543 and 1700. Part I: the Proto-Copernicans* 57

STEFAN ZABIEGLIK

- The Scottish Enlightenment and Polish Thinkers* 73

WOJCIECH JASIAKIEWICZ

- Between Reluctance and Aversion: Remarks on the Negative Attitudes of the British toward the November Uprising of 1830-1831 as Reflected in Contemporary Memoirs and Reports* 87

MARIOLA KAYSER

- The Polemic between Count Edward Raczyński and David Lloyd George on the Anglo-Polish Relations at the Outbreak of World War II* 115

JERZY STRZETELSKI

- The Ice Saints Come Every Year* 165

MARTA WISZNIOWSKA

- Poland 1996: Waiting for "Hamlet"* 173