

Full-time undergraduate studies,
English Studies (specialisation: academic)
Since 2013/2014

Undergraduate studies, academic specialisation, last 6 semesters. The programme includes lectures, classes, laboratories and seminars. Students are required to complete non-teaching practices. There are obligatory and supplementary courses, as well as electives. Once selected, a given course has to be finished with a credit. Apart from the courses listed in the timetable, students need to complete an Occupational Health and Safety course, and an e-learning Library Course. They are also required to take part in entrepreneurship workshops.

A student graduates having scored 180 ECTS credit points (60 ECTS points for each year of studies), with a bachelor title.

The tables below contain details on the number of teaching hours, course type, credit form and the number of ECTS points. Each course ends with a grade.

Symbols used in the tables:

c – classes
L – lecture
lab. – laboratory
s – seminar
ex. – exam
cr. – credit
BA ex. – BA exam
