

Programme
Full-Time Studies: Undergraduate Studies
English Studies, Teaching Track
Since 2013/2014

Full-time undergraduate studies (Teaching Track) last 6 semesters. The programme includes lectures, practical classes, tutorials and seminars. Students are required to undergo teacher training. The programme lists obligatory, supplemental, specialization, and elective subjects. Students are required to get credits for the chosen subjects. Apart from the subjects listed in the programme, each new AMU student is required to complete courses in health and safety as well as Information and resource education (e-learning course), as well as pass a workshop in entrepreneurship.

Each academic year has 60 ECTS credits divided in two semesters. After completing the studies, the student obtains 180 ECTS credits. The student graduates with the degree of licenciant. (bachelor's degree)

Detailed information on the number of hours, forms of classes, forms of credit and number of ECTS credits are presented in the programme below. The student receives a grade for each course which he/she completes, with the exception of: Health and safety in the teaching profession, First Aid and Legal aspects of the teaching profession.

In the case of pedagogical subjects, information in the modules refers to the Regulation of the Minister of Science and Higher Education of 17 January 2012 on education standards in preparation for work as a teacher.

Symbols used in the curriculum plan:
