

Programme
Full-time studies: English Philology
Specialization: Academic
as of 2013/2014

Full time M.A. studies with major in academic subjects last 4 semesters. The programme includes courses in the form of lectures, classes, tutorials and seminars. The plan of studies differentiates between obligatory courses, supplementary courses and elective courses. After having chosen a course, the student is obliged to get credits for it. Apart from the courses listed in the programme of the studies, each AMU student has to complete a course of health and safety at work as well as the course of Information and Resource Education (e-learning course).

Upon graduation the student obtains 120 ECTS credits (60 ECTS credits per academic year). The name of qualification and the title granted to graduates is that of magister (master's degree)

Details on the number of hours, type of the course, type of credit requirement and number of ECTS credits can be found in the course grids below. In order to get a credit for any course a grade must be awarded.
