

READING MATTERS

CONNECTIONS 21-22

Ahdaf Soueif is the author of – among other titles – the bestselling The Map of Love (shortlisted for the Booker Prize in 1999 and translated into more than 30 languages), and Cairo: a City Transformed, her account of the Egyptian revolution of 2011.

She is also a political and cultural commentator. Her Mezzaterra (2004) has been influential and her articles for the Guardian are published in the European and American press. From 2011 to 2015 she wrote a weekly column for the Egyptian national daily, al-Shorouk. In 2007 Ms Soueif founded the Palestine Festival of Literature – PalFest, which takes place in the cities of occupied Palestine and Gaza. Out of that she co-edited This is Not a Border: Reportage and Reflections from the Palestine Festival of Literature (2017).

Ms Soueif was the first recipient of the Mahmoud Darwish Award (Palestine, 2010) and received the European Cultural Foundation's 2019 Princess Margriet Award.
